Dedication

We, the Associated Students of Vallejo College, dedicate this book to the ideal of International Friendship. Students representing many nationalities attend Vallejo College and, as shown in the pictures of this book, take part in the school activities here. These students working in harmony demonstrate the possibility of international understanding and friendship.

Society

School Is In Full Swing

With Vallejo College students well established in their Fall semester routine, scenes such as these are typical of student activities these days on the local campus.

1. Pat Valentine makes her selection from the shelves of the college library.

2. The happy smiles of Don Schilling, Joannie Myhre and Trudy Schneider indicate that their studies are over, for the time being, at least.

3. The pause that refreshes is welcomed enthusiastically by Nancy Wiser, Cleve Beck,

Lois Passini and Sharon Yates.

4. The sunny steps prove a popular spot, either for fun or study, according to Bob Edington, JoAnn Boatwright, Olivia Garcia and Ken Hathaway.

5. It's study time for Kenneth Rasler, Miranda Torykian, LaDonna Gould and Dick Wilson.

College Military Ball

One of the major social events at Vallejo College before the close of school for Summer vacation was the annual Military Ball.

1. Pictured between dances are Don Lethen, Eleanore Hageleit, Nancy Jackson and Bud Wallace.

2. Queen Lois Telford, who reigned over the festivities, is shown wearing the royal crown.

3. Serving in the receiving line were Earl Jensen, member of the board of the Vallejo Unified School District; Mrs. Jensen, George Chaffey, deputy superintendent of schools; Mrs. Chaffey, Mrs. Paul Crabb and Mr. Crabb, superintendent of schools.

4. Another quartette of dancers includes Lieut. Charles Brogan, Anita Northrip, Londell Wilson and S/Sgt. Ted Thompson.

5. Jackie Martin and Mary Kuentzel admire the tropical palms which decorated the gymnasium for the event.
